MEET OUR NEW DIRECTOR OF WORSHIP AND MUSIC MINISTRIES!

Melody Stutzman grew up in Lancaster County and graduated from Penn Manor High School. She started music lessons when she was 5 and was playing in the church at a young age. Bringing that music into the worship experience is her passion. She has led worship teams, organized worship services, directed adult and children's choirs in various churches for the past 20 yrs.

Melody is very excited about starting this new chapter in her life and the life of our church.

NAME CHANGE FOR SPECIAL SERVICES

Beginning on Sunday, September 29, Unity Sundays will now be known as “Community Worship”. Going forward, on every fifth Sunday, and other times during the year, all special services will be called Community Worship.

What is Community Worship? Community Worship is a time for both the Praise & Traditional services to come together as one church and be a community for worship and fellowship with one another. All Community Worship services will begin at 10:00 AM. There will only be a potluck lunch on the day of Community Worship services that fall on the 5th Sunday of the month. If you have any questions about Community Worship, please see Pastor Tom.
